

Cumbria
Wildlife Trust

Keswick Mountain Festival Volunteers

Do you love nature and the outdoors? Do you enjoy meeting people? Nature walk leaders and community conservation enthusiasts needed to help bring 'Wilder Cumbria' to life at Keswick Mountain Festival

Locations: Keswick

Commitment: Minimum: of 3 – 4 hours over one day, Maximum: 3 full days from Friday 17th-Sunday 19th May 2024

Experience the excitement of Keswick Mountain Festival with Wilder Cumbria! We're on the lookout for passionate volunteers to amplify our impact over the 3 days. Whether you're a nature enthusiast, a social butterfly, or a dedicated conservationist, we welcome you!

We're particularly on the lookout for those able to lead or assist on a short, guided nature walk, and those who are happy to talk to people at a stall.

Volunteers will have ample free time to immerse themselves in the festival's offerings and atmosphere.

This role is not suitable for wheelchair users.

Contact details:

If you love nature and enjoy meeting people, please get in touch!

Contact: Lizzie Benn, lizzyb@cumbriawildlifetrust.org.uk